

STEM showcase: information literacy speed dating

Eleanor Barker

Assistant Librarian (Research Support, Teaching and Learning), Cambridge University Medical Library

What is STEM showcase?

- Information literacy speed dating
- Introduce students to a range of resources
- They pick what they want to learn about
- Lunch provided
- Handouts are provided for all topics and tools

November 2018

WHAT'S AVAILABLE TO DISCOVER?
Checklist

	Visited?
Theme: Reference management
Zotero (Amy Theobald)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Mendeley (Eleanor Barker)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Keeping up to date (Clair Castle)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Theme: Online presence for researchers
Blogging (Laura Jeffrey)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Twitter (Ryan Cronin)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Academia.edu/ResearchGate/Google Scholar (Elena Varela Fuentes )	<input type="checkbox"/>
Theme: Organisation and time management
Cloud storage (Lauren Cadwallader)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Trello (Veronica Phillips)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Theme: Presenting your work
Canva (Katie Hughes)	<input type="checkbox"/>
Creative Commons images (Maria Angelaki)	<input type="checkbox"/>

January 2018

IFTTT

Overleaf & Latex

Keeping up-to-date

Apollo

LinkedIn

Vote for your favourite thing!

Use a coloured dot to vote, leave a comment explaining why using a sticky note

Your thesis

Metrics

Symplectic Elements

ORCID

Your career

Benefits

- Good way to reach out to students
- Can cover a lot of resources in a short amount of time
- Students decide what they want to learn about
- Staff can share resources and learn from each other
- Networking opportunity